2.ABRAHAM BENNETT 1.ISAAC BENNETT

Abraham Bennett, a son of Isaac and Mary Bennett, was born in Bucks Country PA March 23, 1745 and died January 19, 1824. He married Catharine Roberts about 1776. Catherine, a daughter of William and Elizabeth (Siddons) Roberts, was born December 24, 1754 and died April 3, 1836.

We know that Abraham purchased a tract of land in Upper Dublin Township, Montgomery County, adjoining Philadelphia county February 23, 1784, from Job Lancaster, and on April 13, 1785, he sold the same tract of land to his father-in-law, William Roberts. The deed for this land is to be found in deed book 5, page 87, office of recorder of deeds, Norristown, PA.

Abraham served in the Revolutionary war as a private in Capt. Abram Wentz's Second Company Philadelphia county militia, Sixth Battalion, commanded by Col. Antis. (Pennsylvania Archives, sixth series, volume I, page 891.)

Bought Tract

On July 30, 1785, Abraham Bennett bought from Andrew Scott sixty five acres in the township of New London, in the southern part of Chester County, just above the Maryland line. This property he kept until he had lived two years on what is now West Virginia. He made a deed of this property March 29, 1798, to Joshua Jackson, a merchant, of Wilmington, Del., in December, 1798, the same Joshua Jackson conveyed to Abraham Bennett 619 acres in Harrison county VA (WV), said and being a part of a large grant of land to JACKSON by the state of Virginia, the patent or deed to the tract being made by Patrick Henry, governor of the state of Virginia, the consideration in this transaction was $619 cash in hand well and truly paid by the said Abraham Bennett.

We learn from an old deed that Abraham Bennett was a blacksmith in his younger days, through after coming to Virginia his principal occupation was that of farmer. His experience as a blacksmith was fortunate, indeed, because that was before the age of machinery, and in this new country he was thrown upon his own resources and was compelled to make and repair most of his farming implements.

Abraham Bennett's name appears first on Harrison County records on the personal property books of the assessor in 1796. It seems from the records he retained title to the sixty-five acres he owned in Chester County, Pennsylvania, until March 29, 1798, evidently "trying it out" here before making the final decision to remain in this state. He came to this state in early spring, cleared a tract of land, put up a cabin and planted some crops. In the fall after the crops were gathered he took his two horses and went over the mountains to Winchester, Va., to get his winter supply of salt, ammunition, boots and clothing. That trip must have taken two weeks both ways. Now one can leave what was then his home, early in the morning, and at noon be in Winchester. We have made great progress in our method of travel since pioneer days.

Children of Abraham and Catharine (Roberts) Bennett.
